

The Connecticut Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) presents:

Practical Tips in Elder Law

Friday, October 19, 2012 (8:30 am - 3:30 pm)
at the Keeney Center, 200 Main Street, Wethersfield

Don't miss the upcoming seminar of the Connecticut Chapter of NAELA

Join other elder law attorneys for the day to catch up on developments:

- 1) Attorney Paul Czepiga will speak about recent indications that DSS is extending the “logic” of Bezzini v. Department of Social Services to other types of non-testamentary transfers, and how the extension may affect our practices.
- (2) Attorney Terry Berthelot of the Center for Medicare Advocacy will report on changes to Medicare including the Affordable Care Act.
- (3) Attorney Joseph Cipparone, author of Annuities in Connecticut Estate Planning, will break down the different types of annuities, discuss their income tax treatment, and provide an update on their treatment for Medicaid eligibility by different states.
- (4) Eric Rodko and Krista Craig from CCCI will describe functional and financial eligibility classifications for home care coverage.
- (5) Attorney Lisa Nachmias Davis will speak about durable powers of attorney and the drafting and selection of various gifting clauses.
- (6) Attorney David Slepian will report on CT-NAELA’s legislative initiatives for the upcoming session.
- (7) Attorney Carmine Perri and Attorney Steven Allaire will discuss how to effectively prepare and present a case for a Fair Hearing.

CT NAELA has been approved as an accredited sponsor of CLE activities by the Connecticut Bar Institute, Inc.
